INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net incomes of $1,000 or over, if single, or $2,000 or over if married, must be reported.

The income tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected.

Returns under oath, must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife for husband; or if widowed or divorced, $2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the day of the year first the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances returns must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both in the case of dependent minor children, in making this requirement, it is sufficient to show that the income of both is shown in a joint return or separate returns of either.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040, unless the net income exceeds $5,000, in which case Form 1041 should be used.

Virginia shows net returns and payments to R. C. L. Monroe, Collector of Internal Revenue, Richmond, or J. S. Pennington, Collector of Internal Revenue, Knoxville.

BUMS PASS OUT WITH BOOZE

Report of Associated Charities Association, New York, for 1919.

Richmond, Va., December 15. Knights of the road, whose kingpins foot led them to Richmond in years past, foundered here, and even as they were being driven out of the city, they were being driven out of the city.

By a force of five, a parade was led in the building once known as the Hotel and Restaurant, and the leading history of the city in the reconstruction period. Years of suffering, in fact, had led to the wholesale business district, where the city was now being driven out of the city.

Wayne had been secured by the city, and the city was now being driven out of the city.

Within the last two years, a most interesting change has taken place in the city, and the city was now being driven out of the city.

The city was now being driven out of the city, and the city was now being driven out of the city.
